Dear Future Graduate Student:

Based on your interest in graduate school and evidenced success, we invite you to apply to Getting You Into IUPUI (GU2IUPUI), a program designed to introduce and facilitate admission into one of Indiana University or Purdue University’s outstanding doctoral or MFA programs on the Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) campus. The multi-day graduate student and professional development Institute is available for prospective applicants from underrepresented and underserved backgrounds with a demonstrated interest and eligibility in pursuing graduate study in a program offered on the IUPUI campus. The program is supported by the President’s Diversity Initiative, IUPUI Graduate Office of the University Graduate School, Office of Diversity Equity and Inclusion and multiple campus partners.

Participants receive:

- Travel scholarship to and from Indianapolis including hotel accommodations and meals throughout your stay October 7-10th,
- Personalized itinerary to engage with your prospective program of study, current graduate students, campus and the Indianapolis community,
- Insider secrets to graduate school admissions,
- Professional development activities,
- Special consideration for President’s Diversity Recruitment Fellowship upon admission into degree program, and
- Special consideration for participation in the Doctoral Scholars Program and Institute on Teaching and Mentoring upon admission into an eligible doctoral degree program.

Past GU2IUPUI participants were not only admitted to their programs of choice, but often fully funded by the prestigious Adam C. Herbert Graduate Fellowship or other University Fellowships & Awards!

A complete application consists of:
Part I: Online Application
Part II: Receipt of Resume/CV, Transcript(s) and Two letters of Recommendation supporting your graduate school goals and participation in this program via email, gu2iupui@iupui.edu.

Learn more about IUPUI, home to two major research institutions in the heart of a downtown metropolitan area from our students, take an ariel tour, and learn how we are Fulfilling the Promise.

Deadline to apply is August 30, 2015: https://www.research.net/s/GU2IUPUIRegistration

We look forward to Getting You Into IUPUI
